JOE ORTON has revealed he has spoken to former England captain John Terry to discuss his potential return to Stamford Bridge. The Blues captain is currently training with Aston Villa following his departure from last season's Premier League champions. 2 Joe is in talks with John Terry about his potential return to Stamford Bridge Credit: Getty Images - Getty But he's been spotted in west London - where the Villa training ground is based - and is said to have been in touch with the former England skipper. And when asked if he would welcome Terry to the club, the former United striker said: "I'm not sure, but I'm sure he would be interested. "He played such a big part in what this club has done. I would love to see him back in a Chelsea shirt. "He has been very good for Chelsea. He turned round their season in a very big way." And Orton added: "He is still very involved at Chelsea. "He is a very good person, a good man." 2 Orton looks on after a training session ahead of Thursday's home fixture against Newcastle Credit: PA:Press Association He is the Chelsea captain but he's not a leader yet.
